The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Thirty-five (35) months on Counts 1 and 20 of the Indictment. This term consists of 35 months on Count 1 and 30 months on Count 20, to be served concurrently.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $7,300.47, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, to victim(s) as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with convicted codefendants Vahe Hartuyunyan, Khachik Karabaghakyan, and Sedrak Karabaghakyan for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their losses and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $5,000, which shall bear interest as provided by law.

The fine shall be paid in full immediately.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of counts 1 and 20, to be served concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

5. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any access device, credit or debit card number, check, driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than the defendant's true legal name or names without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; and
6. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer or other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and his effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or Probation Officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, and by any Probation Officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on January 27, 2014. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at: United States Court House, 411 W. Fourth Street, Santa Ana, California 92701.

Defendant is informed of the right to appeal.

It is recommended that the Bureau of Prisons designate confinement of defendant to a Southern California facility in order for defendant to maintain the support of his family.

It is recommended that the Bureau of Prisons evaluate the defendant for placement in the RDAP program.

On the Government's motion, the remaining counts of the Indictment are ordered dismissed by the Court.

It is ordered that the bond is exonerated upon surrender and not before, with pretrial services conditions to remain in effect.
